Susan Berkoski asked for an update on FEMA. She stated her land is receding every time it rains. Her premium has gone up for her insurance because of this.

Lenay Blackwell informed the residents on Evergreen that the county is working with flood victims and has waived some of the resident's township tax for the 2024 year. Lenay was going to look into this a bit more.

Fred Banks made a complaint that people are speeding up and down Division St. He also stated that the people that live at 3112 Division St. are in the garage working at all hours of the night. The radio is loud enough that you can hear it. Supervisor Bird informed Mr. Banks to call the cops when this happens.
